

KSU TAB is excited to offer the following services in 2025 and beyond. All services described below are free to local governments, regional councils/commissions, and nonprofits and are individually designed to meet the needs of the community. Our KSU Team is made up of many disciplines such as geology, engineering, landscape design architects, planners, environmental health, real estate specialists/developers, community marketing plans, and GIS specialists.

Help identifying and inventorying brownfields

- Assistance in prioritization
- Assistance setting up BiT inventory tool

Strategic planning and redevelopment visioning

- Assistance in identifying stakeholders and partners
- Assistance in generating reuse or revitalization concepts

Solar and Green Energy Strategies and Redevelopment planning

- Economic Feasibility, Infrastructure feasibility, specialty assistance in optimizing redevelopment process flow
- Development of a Resources Roadmap

Economic feasibility and sustainability analysis

- Specialties in finance, marketing, market studies, corridor studies, climate adaptability, & resilience
- Proforma assistance

Educational workshops

- Can be designed for community leaders, city councils, community-wide, region-wide
- Topics chosen to meet the needs and interest of the community

Community outreach and input

- Assistance in designing and implementing outreach strategies
- Specialties in outreach to disadvantaged and underserved communities

Brownfields Program Development

- Evaluating Community Capacity for Brownfields Redevelopment Success
- Help identify funding sources
- Conduct Individual Community Resource roundtables, funding strategies

EPA Brownfields Multipurpose, Assessment, Revolving Loan, Cleanup Grants and Job Training Grants

- MARC application reviews; Assistance with the use of the TAB EZ tool to write individual grant applications
- Assistance with development of Workplans and meeting Federal Procurement Requirements

Help finding and evaluating environmental consultants

- Assistance with defining scope of a project
- Assistance with RFQ/Ps and evaluation criteria

Review of plans and technical reports

- Assistance with understanding results of Phase I, II reports and cleanup plans

Fact sheets and information

Other assistance, as needed and agreed upon

Application process for these services is simple, please contact Roxanne Anderson, KSU TAB Director at RoxAnderson@ksu.edu or Beth Grigsby, KSU TAB Assistant Director at beth27@ksu.edu