Since IDEM was formed in 1986, the agency has been aggressively searching for and cleaning up contaminated properties. The following links offer Hoosiers access to a wide variety of environmental information about your community.

Map-based Resources

- IDEM Interactive Map: Interactive IDEM-regulated site viewer.
 - Quick Start Guide [PDF]
 - Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\) [PDF]
 - Layer Guide Guidance Document [PDF]
- IndianaMap: Official Indiana state GIS atlas. IndianaMap is maintained for the Indiana GIS Community by the Indiana Geographic Information Officer \(GIO\) in partnership with geoConvergence and the Indiana Geographic Information Council \(IGIC\).

3 Click "Layer List" which looks like a stack of papers.

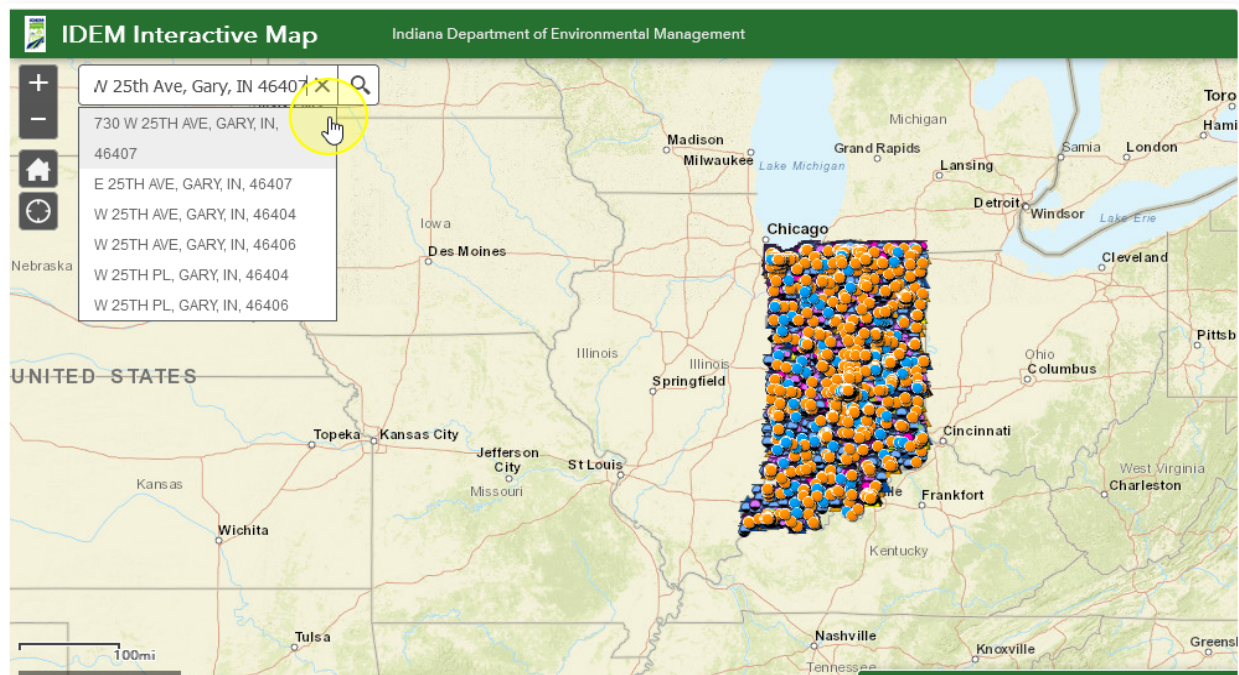

4 Click Check Box next to the different IDEM programs you want to view. They will appear on the map with different symbols.

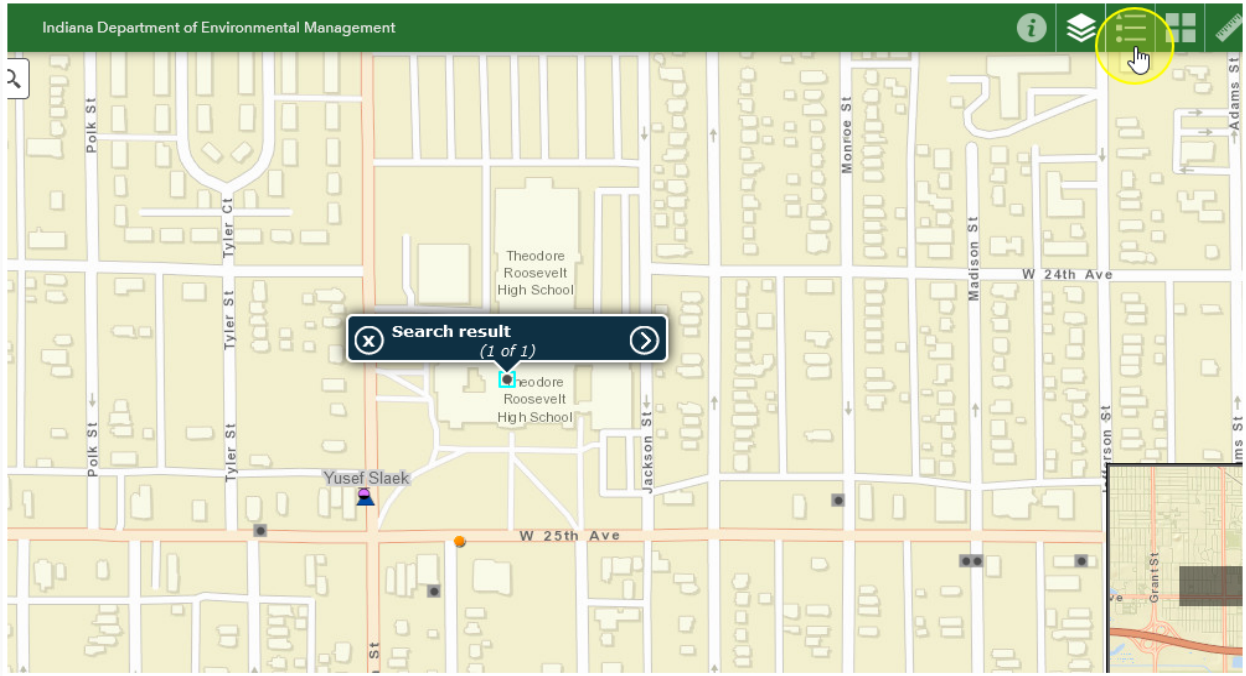

5 Click the arrow button to fold the layer list out of the way.

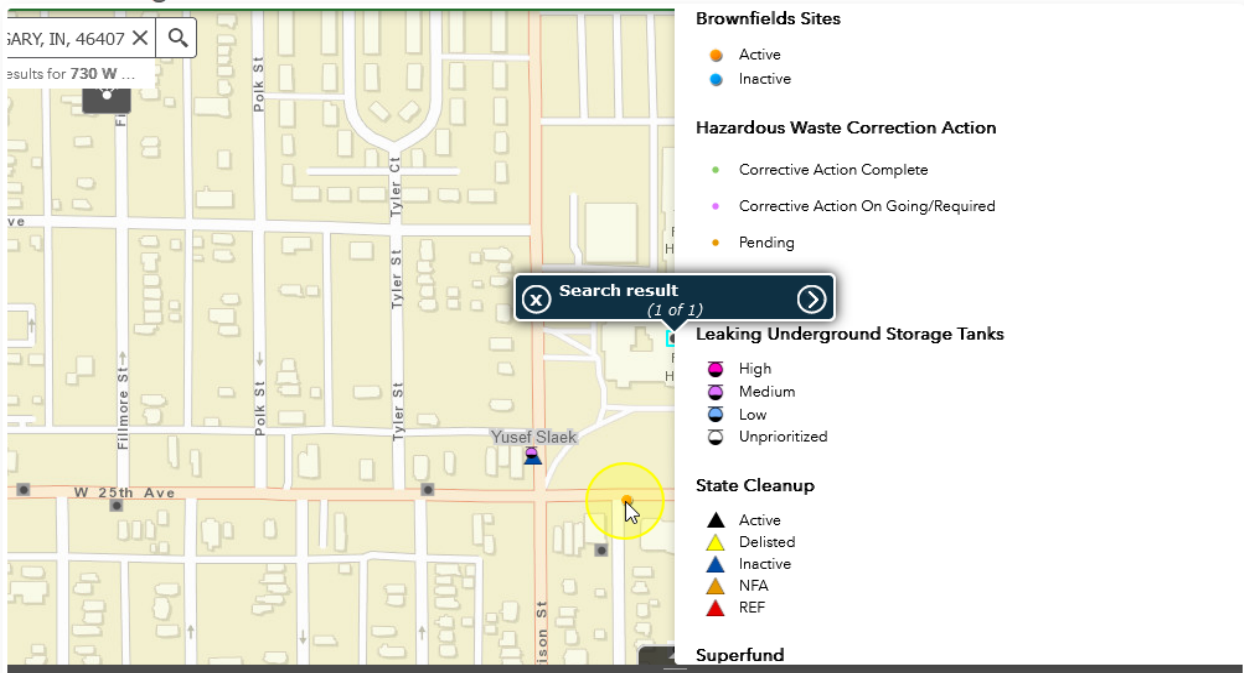

6 Type an address into the search box to find a specific location.

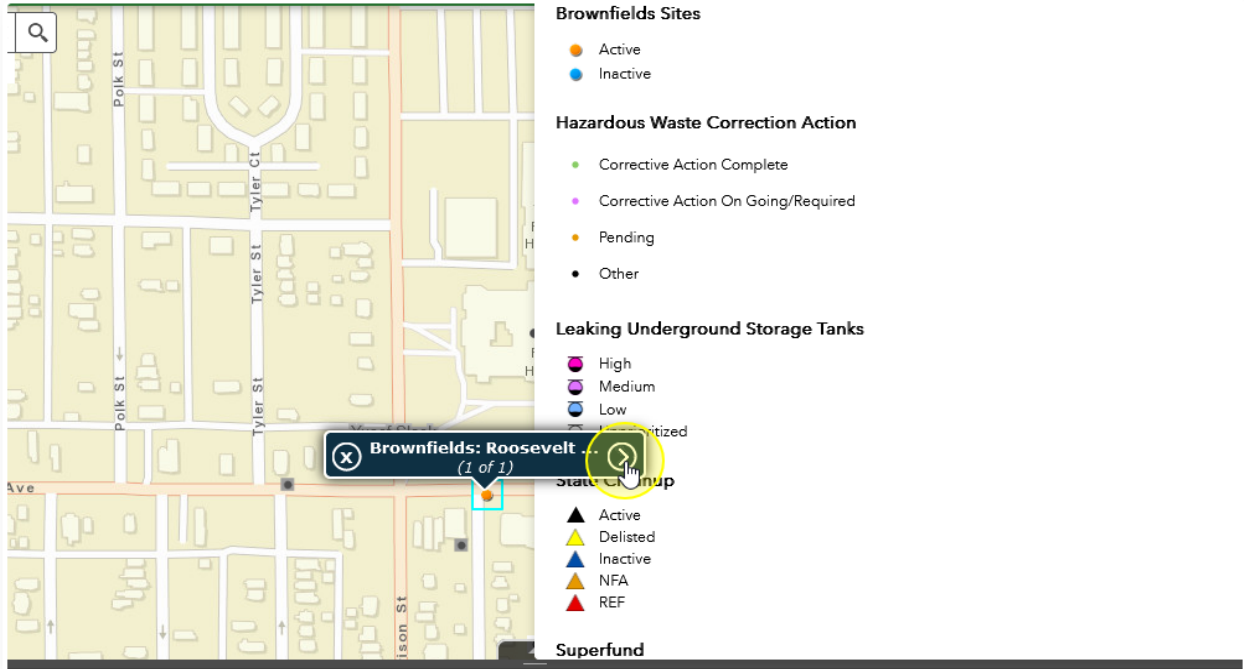

7 Click "Legend" to see what each symbol represents.

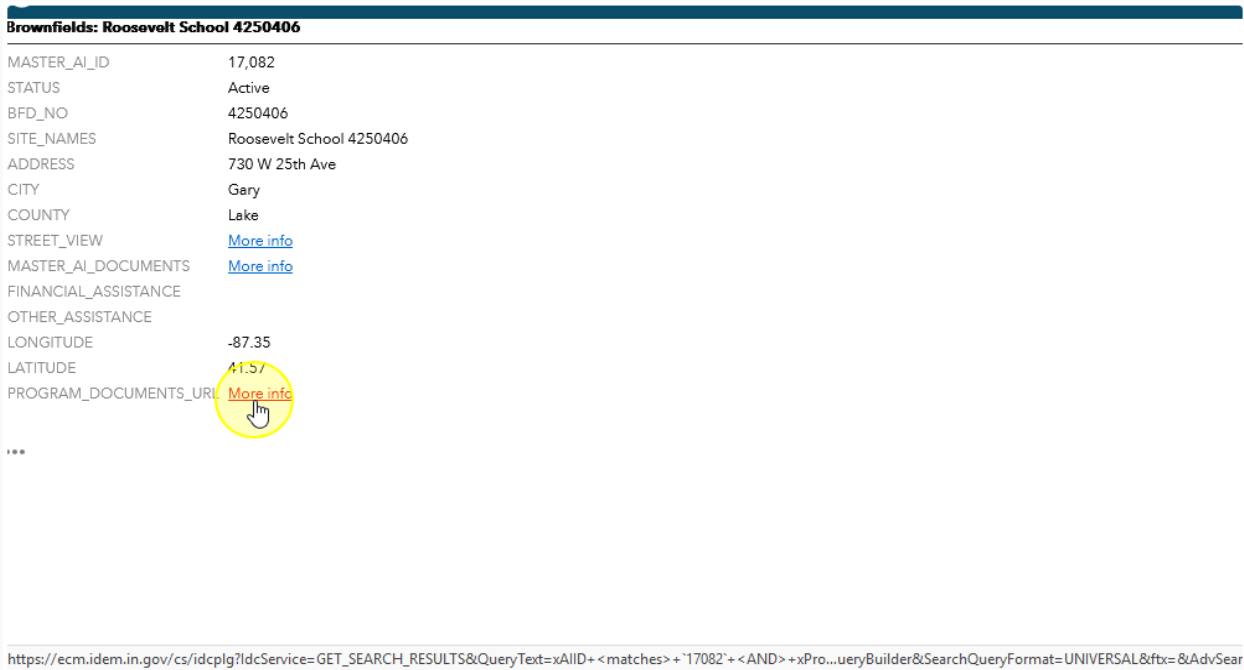

8 Each IDEM program has different symbols and different colors have different meanings.

9 Click a symbol on the map and then the arrow to find more information about the location.

10 Click "More info" next to Program Documents to find the documents in our Virtual File Cabinet (VFC).
